AT A GLANCE

- New agency created by the legislature in 2021
- Collaborates with the Minnesota Indian Affairs Council
- Monitors cases and investigates complaints of non-compliance from American Indian families negatively impacted by child welfare social service agencies

PURPOSE

According to Minnesota's 2020 Out-of-Home Care and Permanency Report (published January 2022):

- 13,442 children were placed in out-of-home care; 2,563 (19%) of those were American Indian.
- American Indian children stay in care for two years or longer compared to other groups.

As shown in the figure below, the rate per 1,000 children in out-of-home care has been declining since 2017, and the rate of American Indian children has seen a dramatic reduction from a high of 131.1 per 1,000 children in the Minnesota population in 2017 to 89.7 per 1,000 in 2020.

[Note: Native children remain the most likely group in the state and nation for removal from their homes.]

The Office of Ombudsperson for American Indian Families (OAIF) is a new independent agency, created by legislation in July 2021. However, since 1991, there has been an Ombudsperson for American Indian Families working to serve American Indian Families involved in child protection. The OAIF works independently and in collaboration with the American Indian Community-Specific Board. The Board is appointed by the Minnesota Indian Affairs Council. The Ombudsperson monitors cases and investigates complaints of non-compliance of statutes, rules, and laws, and educates the legal community and the American Indian Community about the Child Protection Process. The OAIF mission is "Preserving the Indian Family."

BUDGET

The OAIF's budget was seeded in July 2021 with $190,000. Since this is a newly created agency, there is no historic data to report.

STRATEGIES

As shown in the above figure, there is great disparity and over-representation of American Indian children who are in out-of-home care. The OAIF seeks to close the gap and emphasize the importance of an antiracist child welfare system that dedicates resources to enable Minnesota's American Indian children and families to achieve their full potential. Effective strategies are needed at every stage of the child welfare continuum process: prevention, screening and assessment, decision-making, providing culturally specific and responsive services, ensuring that fathers are being provided notice and a case plan, and including the tribes at every stage when a child is tribally affiliated.

To begin the process, the OAIF will learn national best practices and develop creative messaging so children are not removed from their homes at such high rates. When and if they need to be removed, it is our goal to ensure they are placed with family instead of strangers and to prioritize reunification. The OAIF three-year plan is to:

- Establish new networks to begin building effective coalitions.
- Assess strategies to address over-representation.
- Implement an action plan.
- Propose legislative packages on policy directions.

The OAIF will continue to take complaints and inquiries, monitor cases for non-compliance, investigate cases when necessary, and develop public policy.

RESULTS

The Ombudsperson for American Indian Families was previously with the Office of Ombudsperson for Families (OBFF) and the results below are data for the three-year period prior to the legislation creating the OAIF. This data provides information on the effective work the Ombudsperson for American Indian Families did from 2018 to 2020. When the OBFF reported their data, it was reported cumulatively and did not disaggregate the data for each of the Ombudspersons. The data below is what the Ombudsperson for American Indian Families reported.
